

WHAT YOU NEED TO GRADUATE Cinema / Digital Media

124 Total Units Required

52-55 Units Core Curriculum

57 Units of Communication Degree Req

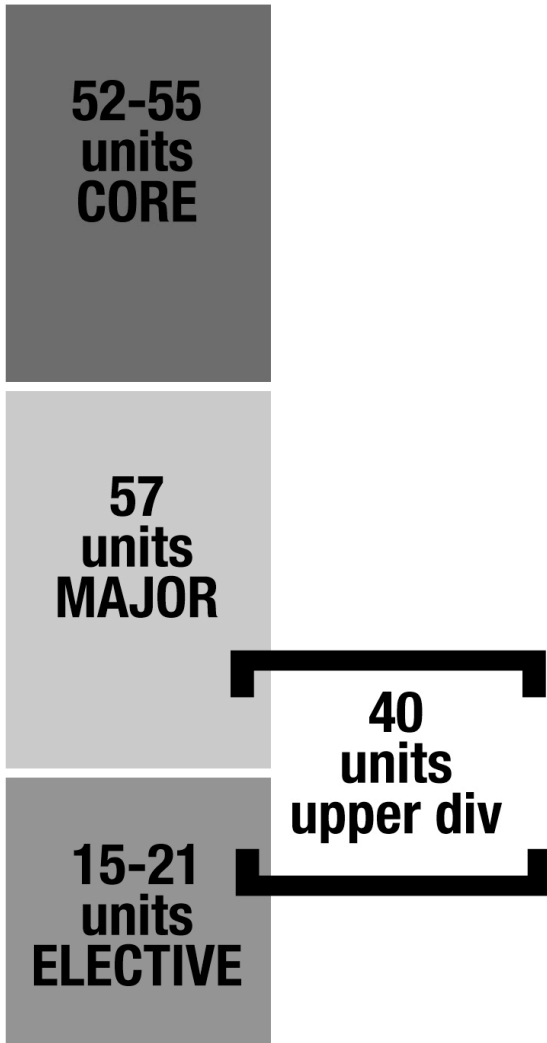

- 30 units of Cinema / Digital Media Core classes
- 3 units of Communication Practicum
- 24 units of Screenwriting or Production emphasis

40 Upper Division Units

By taking all of the required courses below, you will only have 21 UPPER DIVISION UNITS. Since 40 of your total units must be Upper Division, this means that you must take at least 15 additional Upper Division units (300 or 400 level course).

- COMM 305: Comm. Theory/Research
- COMM 464C: Media Criticism
- COMM 495 (A, B, D): Senior Project
- COMM 450: Internship
- THEO 300C: Developing Christian Worldview
- CHIS 400C: Christian Heritage
- ENGL 300C: Literature Requirement

15-21 Elective Units

COMMUNICATION MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

Cinema/Digital Media

Cinema/Digital Media Core Courses	24 units
COMM 220: Visual Storytelling	3 units
COMM 227: Introduction to Cinema	3 units
COMM 258: Christianity/Artistic Culture	3 units
COMM 273: Visual Technology	3 units
COMM 290: Intro/Interpersonal Communication	3 units
COMM 305: Communication Theory/Research	3 units
COMM 320: Digital Audio and Video Principles	4 units
COMM 464C: Media Criticism	3 units
COMM 495 (A, B, or D): Senior Project	3 units
Communication Practicum	3 units
COMM 450: Internship	3 units
Communication Application/Content	20 units
Courses in area of your chosen emphasis
Total of	51 units